They report plenty of fish for their breakfast, after sleeping under the cliff through the night.

Dr. Heston, of our town, has been quite sick for several days, but is convalescing.

Mr. Lewis and Lady, of Paris, Texas, are visiting Dr. Heston, of this place.

The young people who went to the party last week at Mr. Cudgner's, had a regular rip-roaring time, at least going and coming, as they were all turned over, and contents dumped into the mud.

Hon. Will Hayne's new book, "Dock Brown," made its appearance. It is a very neat volume, bound in paper cover, and is, I suppose, a very interesting story to readers of that character of literature.

Rev. Mr. Fuller preached in town last Sunday a discourse on "Final perseverance of the saints." Mr. F. was also selling a very neat new book, of which Rev. Mr. Fuller, the author, of this place, is the author. The title of the book is "The Contrast." Price, 21.

At a special meeting of the Litchfield and the close of Circuit Court last night, the following paper was adopted:

GRAYSON CIRCUIT COURT,
5TH JUDICIAL DISTRICT,
April term, 1880.

To Hon. Jas. Stuart, Judge:

As this is the closing term of your official life in this county, after a service of about eighteen years on the bench for and with us, we, the members of the bar, and officers of the Court of Grayson county, beg you to allow us to spread upon the records of this Court, this testimonial of our appreciation of you as a man and an officer, and of our regret at the thought of a final separation from you.

We do not speak for the purpose of commending you to strangers, for we know the same impulsive, genial nature which has won and kept our hearts, will win the hearts and confidence of others; but we simply desire as a matter of some solace and comfort to you in your declining years, to have testifies to our universal love for you as a friend and companion in social life; to our admiration and respect for you, as an enlightened jurist, a sound lawyer and an honest, conscientious man, and to our most sincere regret, as do all our people, irrespective of party or creed, that we shall no longer be associated with you as an officer, a companion and friend. With full hearts, we say good-bye.

Rosine, Ky., April 26.

Editor Herald:
Rev. G. J. Dean preached to a large audience at this place last Sunday. Rosine is going to have a new meeting-house soon.

John Foster has moved his store to Beaver Dam.

Mr. T. B. Sinclair is a candidate for Constable in this District. Mr. Sinclair is a well-known and capable citizen, and doubt will make a good officer.

R. R. Wedding has closed his school at Salem, on account of sickness.

Mr. T. H. Faght has been very ill for some time. Dr. J. C. Camp, an attending physician. The Dr. has been in bad health for several years, but he is now improving, and is doing a large practice in the county.

We think your Millwood correspondent, "June Eliot," is out of order, when he speaks of a party for the county hotel keeper, as a defense for Millwood.

Mr. B. L. Brady has moved to our town to take charge of the telegraph office at this place. We welcome Mr. Brady, and his excellent wife, warmly.

C. G. Crowder is the happiest man in all this country. It is a boy and weighed ten pounds.

We regret to chronicle the death of Mrs. Faght, the consort of T. H. Faght. She departed this life on yesterday, the 4th inst. She was buried in the cemetery.

Mr. Morgan's new house is rapidly approaching completion.

Our town elected resulted in making Mr. V. R. Rains Police Judge and Mr. T. M. Raley Marshal.

June Eliot again enters the arena of controversy by his editorial, in which he takes issue with the editor of the "Herald," to pluck the well-merited laurels from the beautiful brows of Rosine.

We do not come with the ponderous battle of Richard the Lion Heart, the sycamore, of Saladin, or the rugged us, of Hercules, but with his edged, called from the native shrubbery that adorns the great square, the grand plaza of Millwood, where pigeons and pigeons hunt for food to congregate. He is evidently jealous of the progress of Rosine; he does not like to hear of the sound of the hammer beating through the streets, and perpetrates a pointless witicism about the hammer of the auctioneer.

If he should come to Rosine, when he is ready to bid, he would hear the pleasant sound of a dinner bell at our hotel, inviting him to one of the very best of dinners, than he would have to hear the auctioneer's hammer.

He says that the place was formerly inhabited by Whangdoodles. That is very true, but the last Whangdoodle that used about here is dead. Poor thing! He must have been a very old fellow, for he left here and went with the pigeon hunters to Millwood and was never heard of till recently, when he reappeared as the Millwood correspondent of the Hartford Herald, under the name of "June Eliot."

Pleasant Ridge Items.

PLEASANT RIDGE, May 3.

Editor Herald:
Pleasant Ridge is quite a lively little town, having three respectable shops, one drug store, which is doing a good business, and a first-class dry goods store.

The farmers are taking advantage of this fine weather, breaking ground and planting corn. The bugs have destroyed nearly all the tobacco plants in this part of the county. There is not enough plant in this neighborhood to set ten acres.

The wind and rain storm here last Sunday was terrific, and it did much damage. Fences were blown down everywhere, and a great many buildings were blown down.

CLARIC.

If women are really angels, why don't they fly over fence instead of making such a fearful job of climbing.

A number of gentlemen, young and old, including our old friends, Mr. McCall, Dr. Haden, Mr. Lewis, of Texas, and J. C. Burton, went to Hornback's mill on Rough creek last Monday, on a picnic.

Physicians Prescriptions carefully filled at any time. They have secured the services of Mr. F. E. Kimbley as salesman and prescription clerk. He has had considerable experience in this capacity. He can always be found in the Store or his home over head.

The Danger of Aimlessness.

A great deal of time is wasted by young people who have no particular aim in life. Aimlessness and lack of motive are the chief obstacles to the best and most profitable use of time.

With a goal to attain, an end to accomplish, and force of character sufficient to hold the mind steadfastly to its purpose, the sands of time are easily transmuted into golden rain. Life is made worth the living. Then boys, especially if you live in the country, utilize your time. Resolve to turn to good account your hitherto wasted moments.

Most men will have gently learned the lesson of utilizing the minutes.

Schools and School Talk.

In a few weeks the commencement exercises of the South Carrollton Institute will be held. Every reader of the Edo, whether local or foreign, has frequently read of the success of this flourishing institute. Nearly every reader also knows its history. It is known that seven years ago when Prof. Wayland Alexander went to South Carrollton, he started his school with a dozen pupils and not the most inviting prospects; but with an energy that has won him a most enviable reputation, together with the assistance of every public spirited citizen in the community, he has succeeded in establishing one of the largest and best-paying schools in Western Kentucky at South Carrollton.

The citizens of the place can best tell of the benefit it has been to their town; of the elevated morals, increased trade, etc. It has brought them, without it, South Carrollton would be a mere hamlet, whereas it is one of the busiest and most flourishing towns in the Green river section. These things speak for themselves.

It is a matter of profound regret with the Edo, and with everybody else, that Prof. Alexander is to go to Hartford next year. He has built up a school in our county whose fame will be known for years to come, but we are loath to part with such a like man. What is our loss, however, is Hartford's gain, and we congratulate our neighbor on his good luck. He will soon by his affable manners and unselfishness, endear himself to his people, and we doubt not, build them up a large and prosperous school.

—Edo.

The Candidates.

On last Monday Judge Lucius P. Little in a very forcible speech, commending himself to the people of Hancock county as a candidate for Circuit Judge, and J. A. Dean announced himself as a candidate for Common Pleas Judge of this county.

These two gentlemen are from Daviess county, and come well recommended, in fact, are more or less known to our people as being well deserving and well qualified for the position to which they aspire.

The race for Circuit Judge may now be regarded as made up between Judge Little and Judge Stuart. The appeal of Judge Little to the Democrats for support was so well presented that no Democrat could fail to feel its force.

He said the office of Circuit Judge is a noble one, and that if elected, no tucky by right and no Democrat, to Democrats, and that they have no reason for giving place or position to their political adversaries; that no Democrat could fail to feel its force.

It is a well-known fact that in all the States where the Radicals have the sway no Democrat has a ghost of a chance for an office. Even post-masters are required to show up Radical before an appointment is given. Ignorant negroes are given positions over cultured, deserving Democrats, from one end of the State to the other.

It is a well-known fact that in all the States where the Radicals have the sway no Democrat has a ghost of a chance for an office. Even post-masters are required to show up Radical before an appointment is given. Ignorant negroes are given positions over cultured, deserving Democrats, from one end of the State to the other.

Mr. Dean expressed his entire willingness to abide by the result of a convention, and as Major Haycraft is a candidate for re-election, it is hoped that he may likewise favor such a party disposition.

We are decidedly in favor of a thorough party organization, and appeal to the Democrats of Hancock county, and elsewhere to rally the rank and file into a speedy reorganization of the party.

Good beginning for the great battle of November next, can be made in the organization for August. Let us have an early organization and nominations for all districts and counties decided upon before an appointment is given. No party can be successful when its members whither away their power by petty dissensions, or by supporting local politicians for office; and no man can be a good party man who is not ever ready for party organization and action.

Proper party efforts in Hancock county this summer, will consign the Greenback bantling to the tomb, and will leave us with but a handful of Grant followers for the fall election. Let every Democrat identify himself to the post of duty, and let that duty be as a guiding star to the success of his party.

Our County Committee is expected to take early action for a convention, or primary election, the latter, we hope, —Hancock Painter.

Mr. McKenzie, of Kentucky, late this evening offered to amend the bill of the Revenue bill by providing that producers of leaf tobacco might sell $1,000 worth of the product of their own hands without the payment of a tax. This was a measure he said for the relief of a poor farmer, who rarely gets the benefit of any legislation. Growing eloquent as he proceeded he turned upon the Ways and Means Committee and called for a "splendid manifesto," and the House calendar he designated as "the potter's field of legislation; no measure could possibly be got out of one or the other, unless it was for the benefit of the rich. There was a tax upon everything entering into the domestic economy of the poor man and an exemption on seven-tenths of the wealth of the country, the bonded interest bearing interest and the property interest of the country goes soot-free under the tariff laws, while the farmer is taxed upon every tool he uses, on the roof that covers him and on the cloth that hides his nakedness. Our tariff system is but a synonym for spoliation and robbery."

South Carolina for Grant to the End.

The Republican convention of South Carolina met in Columbia last Wednesday and passed the following resolution:

"Resolved, That the delegation to represent the State of South Carolina in the National Republican Convention to nominate candidates for the offices of President and Vice President of the United States are hereby instructed and solemnly pledged to vote as a unit to elect to the presidency the most renowned and most available, Gen. U. S. Grant, and that upon all questions arising in said convention they are earnestly recommended to vote in like manner, to the end that the true interests of the constituency they represent may be subserved."

We are authorized to announce Maj. Joe Hayslett as a candidate for Commonwealth's Attorney in this, the 4th Judicial District, composed of Daviess, McLean, Hancock and Ohio counties, subject to the action of a Democratic Primary Election, July 23, 1880.

For Circuit Court Judge.
We are authorized to announce Lucius P. Little, of Owensboro, as a candidate for Judge of the Circuit Court of this, the Fourth Judicial District, composed of Daviess, McLean, Hancock and Ohio counties, subject to the action of a Democratic Primary Election, July 23, 1880.

We are authorized to announce Judge James Stuart, of Owensboro, as a candidate for re-election to the office of Judge of the Circuit Court in the Fourth Judicial District composed of the counties of Daviess, McLean, Hancock and Ohio. Election August 23, 1880.

For Constable.
We are authorized to announce James W. Daniel as a candidate for re-election to the office of Constable in the Cromwell Magisterial District. Election August 23, 1880.

Cate's Jeans at Anderson's Bazaar.

Go to Field's stable, as he will attend to your stock just right.
Lake ice always on hand and for sale by W. H. Williams & Son.

If you want to refresh the inner man with a nice cold glass of soda water, go to Thomas Brothers.

Great complaint is prevalent among the farmers of the county in regard to the scarcity of tobacco plants.
The present indications are that we will have a larger crop of blackberries this year than for years past.

L. F. Woerner, in addition to his boot and shoe shop, has added a regular shoe store.
If you want to buy groceries at bargain prices go to Foster & Hill's. They have a large and fresh stock, and guarantee satisfaction to purchasers.

Work is progressing on the brick-kiln of Messrs. Williams Bros'. About 300,000 will be burned, a great many of which have already been engaged.
Messrs. R. P. Rowe & Bro., purchased last week the stock of dry goods belonging to Hardwick & Nall, and will open out next week in the old stand with a big boom.

FOR SALE - A HOUSE AND LOT.
Mr. J. F. Yager, desiring to move to Owensboro, wishes to sell his HOUSE and LOT in Hartford. For further particulars, apply to C. J. YAGER, 15-1f.

It is the most universal report from every quarter that the bugs have destroyed nearly all the tobacco plants. The opinion of reliable men is that at least 75 per cent of the plants are gone. This will, no doubt, if general, effect the price of tobacco now on hand.

We want to hire two good log teams - will pay $4.50 per day cash for good teams and board. 10 or 15 men can get work with us at fair wages. Call at our camp four miles below Hartford, on Rough creek.
17-3f J. C. & J. T. BENNETT.

A company of five armed men made a raid upon the bull-frogs in the swamps just beyond town last Saturday, and succeeded in bagging 385. So much talent has been taken from the company that have for some time past favored us with evening matinees, that all future engagements have been cancelled.

The hotel at Owensboro Junction, presided over by that prince of hotel men, Capt. W. H. Sandusky, keeps up a reputation equal to the Galt House, of Louisville. It is one of the best hotels in the land, and all traveling men who once happen to try it, ever afterwards arrange their trips in the Green River Country, to take Owensboro Junction in their route.

Thousands of soldiers and heirs are entitled to pensions with payment from date of discharge or death, if applied for before July 1, 1881. Wound, accidental injury or disease entitles to pension. Bonus and back pay collected. Increase of pension secured. This firm established in 1868. Address, enclosing stamp, Edison Bros., U. S. Claim Attorneys, 711 G. Street, Washington, D. C.

Mr. E. S. Edgerton respectfully informs the citizens of Hartford and vicinity, that he intends to remain at this place and carry on the painting business in all its branches, house, sign and carriage work, graining, paper hanging, etc., done in the latest style. All work guaranteed to give satisfaction. All favors in his line will be thankfully received, and promptly attended to.
E. S. EDGERTON.

W. E. & I. N. Parish, Owensboro, Ky., are carrying a large stock of Wall Paper, Oil Paintings, Chroms, Window Shades, Picture Frames, Mouldings, Glass, School and Miscellaneous Books of all kinds. Any orders sent through J. F. Rice, Mail Agent, will have prompt attention. We are prepared to fill orders at wholesale in all our lines.
Respectfully,
W. E. & I. N. PARISH.

Have you seen the improved corset at Anderson's Bazaar?

An entire stock of new family groceries just received by W. H. Williams & Son.

A large number of the yeomanry of this county were in town attending Circuit Court.

Remember that all goods bought of Griffin Bros. will be delivered free within the corporate limits of Hartford.
Just received, another lot of beautiful collars and fine trimmings.

Backyard reapers and mowers for sale at Williams & Bro's. Be sure and examine them before purchasing.
The post-office will be removed next week to the store-house formerly occupied by Messrs. Hardwick & Nall.

Field's stable was full to overflowing with horses Monday. The people are fast learning the best place to put up.
The wife of Mr. Jas. Maddox is the daughter of his uncle, yet, the parties are no blood kin. Who can explain the situation?

Don't forget that Field's stable is the best in the country, and if you want your horses well attended to, put up with him.
The wool market in Louisville yesterday was inactive. Dealers refused to bid at any price, and there were no quotations at all.

Miss Bettie Hudson, daughter of Robt. Hudson, aged 26 years, died at the residence of her father, near Buford on the 29th ult., of consumption.

We learn from parties from South Carrollton that about one hundred of the pupils in attendance there now, will come with Prof. Alexander here next September.
Dr. J. S. Coleman will preach the funeral of Mrs. Emily Peters, deceased, consort of James Peters, at Beaver Dam Church, the 5th Sunday in May, 1880, at 11 o'clock.

Elisha and Ninian Young, of Calhoun, accompanied by Misses Sallie Hicks and Mary Woodward, were in attendance at the colored festival last Saturday night.
The candidates for Circuit Judge and Commonwealth Attorney spoke to the citizens of Ohio county at the Court House Monday.

P. M. Hoeker, of Goshen church neighborhood, sheared his cow's wool last Monday and got a fleece weighing 14 pounds. The buck is four years old and is for sale.
Uncle "Billy" Coleman got 1022 pounds of wool from 10 yearling Cotswold lambs. He left with us a specimen of two of the fleeces of these lambs, which are hard to beat.

Mary, a daughter of Jack Young, who has been sick for some time with lung disease, died last Monday morning. Her brothers, who were here on a visit from Calhoun, remained over until after the burial.
The beautiful and accomplished Miss Morton, of South Carrollton, spent Monday night in Hartford and visited Anderson's Bazaar by gas light. She was surprised to find such a store in Hartford and spoke in glowing terms of the Bazaar.

In another column of this issue will be found the withdrawal card of Mr. O. H. Haynes, of Owensboro, for the office of Commonwealth's Attorney, of this district. Although Mr. Haynes was a candidate but a short time, yet his name had become familiar to many of our citizens, who will regret to learn of his decision.

D. Rogers, of the firm of Rogers & King, Buffalo, Ky., will go East this week, where he will purchase a large stock of dry goods, notions, etc., and after his return expects to sell them from 5 to 10 per cent cheaper than those who bought earlier, as he will get the benefit of the decline. Save money by buying of them.

The citizens of Rockport, Beaver Dam, Owensboro Junction and Cerale will give a picnic at Rockport on Saturday, May 29, 1880. The candidates for office in Ohio and Muhlenberg counties will be present and address the citizens on the political issues of the day. Those wishing a day of pleasure and enjoyment should attend. For further particulars read bills published at this office.

Mr. M. P. McDowell requests us to say that the horse thief arrested at Rosine, Saturday is not related to his family; that his name is not McDowell, but Ballenger, and is from Hart county, Ky. We know that M. P. McDowell is not related in sentiment and action, to any horse thief or wrong doer of any sort, as he is one of the most honest, upright men in the county, and we are glad to note that the thief referred to is not related to him, and not even named McDowell.

Circuit Court began Monday morning, with Judge Stuart on the bench. But little business has been transacted up to this writing, as Monday evening was devoted to speaking by the Candidates for Circuit Judge and Commonwealth's Attorney. The following gentlemen compose the Petit Jury: L. W. Leach, Parson Tabor, T. L. Allen, H. P. Wise, M. P. McDowell, R. H. Stevens, Wm. Foster, R. C. James, T. H. Lloyd, John Benton, J. D. Bell, W. B. Aylington, Justin Simpson, Frank Allen, H. T. Ford, Eli Dodson, J. M. Leach, W. P. Rowe, T. S. King, S. K. Bishop, F. W. Pirtle, Ed. Miller and Virgil Renfro.

Mr. Harvey T. Ford, of Fordville, contributed two specimens to our cabinet of curiosities. One is a species of iron pyrites; the other is probably a petrification.
Williams Brothers have now the most complete stock of goods, embracing stoves, hardware, groceries of every description, etc., etc., in this market, which they will sell low for cash.

Mrs. Morris will have a first-class dress-maker from Louisville to-day, and the ladies needing anything in the mending line done can now be accommodated on reasonable prices, and get their work done in the latest style.
The attention of parties who have unemployed time on their hands is directed to the announcement of General G. T. Beauregard, of New Orleans, La., in our advertising columns, relative to the agency in this vicinity, for the sale of the great work on the war, by the late General J. B. Hood, entitled "ADVANCE AND RETREAT, Personal Experiences in the United States and the Confederate States Armies."

As Vice President of the Ohio County Sunday School Convention, I am desirous to obtain the name and post-office address of every Sunday School Superintendent in Ohio county, with the denomination of the schools. Superintendents will please send their names and address at once.

Jno. F. WALLACE, Hartford, Ky.
While in South Carrollton last week we had the pleasure of visiting our friend and preceptor, Prof. Wayland Alexander, principal of South Carrollton Institute. His school will close about the 11th of June, which will end his connection with that Institute, having been engaged to take charge of the school here next September.

We were shown through the art or ornamental department of South Carrollton Institute, last week, conducted by Mrs. Glenn and had the pleasure of examining some very rare specimens of paintings. All kinds of drawings, crayonings, oil paintings, etc., are taught in this department by Mrs. Glenn, who seems to master the art.

The young men of town organized a Debating Club last Saturday night, at the Masonic Hall, for the benefit of improving and training their minds. All the current issues of the day will be thoroughly ventilated by the boys. They will discuss the third term problem, pro and con, at their next meeting, which will be held Saturday night. Invitation is extended to all. Turn out and "loose" up the youths.

Dr. E. H. Whittinghill, living in the Eastern portion of Rosine district, at the age of 53 years, 2 months and 11 days, became great-grandfather, his wife, Mrs. Sarah E. Whittinghill, became great-grandmother at the age of 52 years, 1 month and 5 days. The Doctor offers a treat to any man who can beat this. His great-grandchild is now 3 years old and he hopes to live to see his great, great-grandchild.

By a perusal of our advertising columns of this issue, our readers will observe the advertisement of Mrs. W. A. Kelly, of South Carrollton, where she has had the opportunity of keeping up with the fashions of the day, and consequently has great advantages in the selection of her goods, both in fashion and prices. We had the pleasure of examining her goods while in South Carrollton, and know whereof we speak.

Parties desiring to attend the Nashville Centennial Exposition and Military drill, May 17th, can procure excursion tickets to Nortonville on one fare for the round trip. Tickets good to return by May 25th, if stamped in the Exposition Building. Parties wishing to attend the Baptist Association and Sunday School Convention, at Owensboro, May 18th, can get tickets to Owensboro Junction at six cents per mile for the round trip, tickets good to return by May 25th.

The hop at Masonic Hall last Friday night given by Mr. Clarence Hardwick, was an occasion of great pleasure and enjoyment. Most all of the neighboring towns were represented by young gentlemen, which added very materially to the enjoyment of the evening. Among the visiting young ladies we mention the presence of Miss Irene Eaves, of Sacramento, and Miss Alberta Murray, of Pleasant Ridge. The festivities of the evening were kept up until 1 o'clock, when the party adjourned, tendering to Mr. Hardwick their gratitude for an evening of unalloyed pleasure.

The Penitentiary to be Located in Hartford.
Hartford has finally been selected as the location for the Penitentiary. The Legislature selected this place so that the State might be able to procure at a less price than anywhere else - striped suits and cheap shoes at Anderson's Bazaar.

Strayed or Stolen.
From my farm, about four miles above Livermore, known as the Nace Barnard farm, about the middle of February, a dark chestnut sorrel horse, with very little mane and short tail, blind in the left eye, small white spot in forehead, about nine years old and raw-boned. A reward of $10 will be given for his delivery to me, or any information that will lead to his recovery. My address is Livermore, Ky. D. J. TUCKER.

Public Speaking.
Judge Lucius P. Little, Democratic candidate for Circuit Judge of the Fourth Judicial District, will address the voters of said district at the following times and places:

Sacramento, Saturday, May 15th; Runney, Saturday, May 15th; Tichenor's Store, Monday, 17th; Portland, Monday, 17th; Fordville, Tuesday, 25th; Whitesville, Wednesday, 26th; Buford, Thursday, 27th.

Other district candidates are requested to attend these appointments. The appointment at Runney is at night, all the other appointments are at 1 o'clock P. M. As full an attendance as possible of the voters is earnestly desired.

Negro Mobbed.
On the 7th inst., in Todd county, a negro man, named Johnson, attempted an outrage on a young white woman and afterwards murdered her, cutting her throat from ear to ear. He was arrested, had an examining trial and was held to answer for murder. The Sheriff started with him to jail and summoned a strong guard to aid him, but on the way they were attacked by a mob, the guard overpowered, the negro taken and literally shot to pieces. The Sheriff and guard were advised that if they offered resistance they would share the same fate.

The name of the young lady was Simmons. She was a favorite in the neighborhood.

Wool Carding.
The public are hereby informed that our carding machine has been put in first-class order in every respect, by an experienced workman, and we are now prepared to do carding with dispatch and in good order. We have secured the services of a first-class carder, and will card wool for seven cents per pound, plain, and seven and a-half per pound, mixed, or one-fifth toll. We intend to keep up with our work. So bring on your wool and take your rolls back with you the same day. We have Cate's goods for sale for cash or in exchange for wool.

Thankful for past patronage. We solicit a continuance of the same.
Grinding done every day in the week except Sunday.

Respectfully,
19-4f Jno. H. & Wm. PHIPPS.

An Impositor.
A man, giving his name as Craig, was at Mr. J. M. Southard's, near McHenry, last Saturday, asking aid and claiming to have been burned out on the Monday night previous. He stated that he lived three or four miles from Hartford in the direction of Livermore in the Woodward neighborhood, that he had no sons but four daughters. He is, undoubtedly, a fraud, as the Woodward neighborhood is six or seven miles from town, and no such man lives in that neighborhood and has been medium sized man, about 50 years old and appears to be a victim of intemperance. He suits the description of a man seen by the editor of this paper at Owensboro Junction last Thursday who came up on the train to Rockport Thursday evening. He probably receives means in this way to supply himself with whisky. Beware of him.

Horse Thief Arrested and Escapes.
Nathan McDowell was arrested last Saturday at Rosine for stealing a horse in Hart county some months ago. McDowell has been in the neighborhood of Rosine for three or four months, and claimed to be a minister of the gospel. On Tuesday of last week Judge Van B. Rains, of Rosine, got authority to arrest McDowell, and on Saturday he was arrested and placed under guard. Henderson McDowell, son of widow McDowell, where Nat. McDowell, had been staying, rode over to Rosine on Sunday and hitched his horse with a piece of bark, led the bridle over his neck and asked for riding. Nathan McDowell asked permission of the guard to have a private talk with John Rogers and stepped aside for that purpose. He took advantage of the occasion, jumped on Henderson McDowell's horse and hurried off as fast as possible. He was hotly pursued by the guard, Judge Rains and others and soon he had to abandon his horse and take to the woods. He went at once to widow McDowell's and got another horse and made his escape, and has not up to date, been re-captured.

It is supposed he has made for Hoosier. Our Hoosier readers had better be on the watch. He has dark eyes, dark hair, coarse features, a little stooped-shouldered, about, or very near, six feet tall and will weigh about 170 pounds. He was wearing dark clothes with coat full skirt, had on No. 7 or 8 shoes, a little run over. He is about 24 years old, has a short mustache, light color. Henderson McDowell was arrested, charged with aiding him to escape, but has been released. Much credit is due to Judge V. B. Rains for working this case up and thus ridding the community of a bad man. No reward offered that we know of.

Something New in Owensboro.
The old Planter's Hotel, at Owensboro, has been so thoroughly remodeled as to be called a new hotel. It has been newly carpeted, papered and painted from cellar to garret, newly furnished with elegant and fashionable furniture, nice beds, etc., and is now a first-class house in every particular; the fare especially, being as good as could be desired. Best of all, it has a new landlord, in the person of

C. F. SMITH, who, however, is not a stranger to the hotel business. Mr. Smith was proprietor of the Commercial Hotel, Rockport, Ind., and so fully did he fill the position to the satisfaction of the traveling public that he soon had the best advertised house in the western country. He is now in a larger city, with a larger house, greater accommodations and a chance for a larger patronage, and will exert himself greater than ever to have a popular and accommodating hotel. He has connected his office with the Telephone Exchange and guests of the house know when a beat whistles, just what beat it is, where from, and where bound to, without running their legs off going to the wharf to see.

In short, Mr. Smith intends to spare no pains to have and keep a first-class house in all respects, and at fair prices. Those reading this notice have but to try this house once to be convinced of the truth of all we have said.

A CAB.
To the Democrats of Ohio county.

It is known to you that I was an aspirant for the nomination for the office of Sheriff and submitted my claims to the Democratic convention. In your wisdom you saw proper to place your standard on the hands of another, for which I have no cause to complain. True, I would have felt highly honored if I had received that distinguished honor, but I submit cheerfully, and will say that I have no regrets over any net or effort made to secure the nomination. My conscientious approval of my endeavors, as I used none but honorable and legitimate means to secure the prize. To those who favored me with their support I will ever feel grateful, and toward those who supported my opponents, I have the warmest feelings of friendship. To all I say, let us each endeavor to use greater exertions than the others to carry our nominations to success in August. Without this our labors in making the nominations are vain. With an avowed determination to use all fair and honorable means in my power to elect our nominees, I subscribe myself Yours truly,

THOMAS MORTON.

Timely Caution.
Genuine Hop Bitters are put up in square panels, amber-colored bottles, with white label on one side printed in black letters, and green hop cluster, and on the other side yellow paper with red letters; revenue stamp over the cork. This is the only form in which genuine Hop Bitters Mfg Co., of Rochester, N. Y., and Toronto, Ont., by patents, copyright and trade mark. All others put up in any other way or by any one else, claiming to be like it or pretending to contain hops, by whatever names they may be called, are bogus and unfit for use, and only put up to sell and cheat the people on the credit and popularity of Hop Bitters.

Pretty and Young.
In every feature but the hair, which had grown white from fever, this lady at 25 writes us: "I have used Parker's Hair Balsam six months, and am more than pleased with it. It has restored the natural brown color of my hair and given it a silky softness, nicer than ever before. There is no Dandruff, no falling hair, and it leaves the scalp so clean and nice and cool that I am ever like myself again." The beautiful fresh and vigorous hair it produces together with its property of restoring gray or faded hair to the natural youthful color, and entirely freeing the head from dandruff and itching, surprises no less than it pleases. Sold in large bottles, at only 50 cts. and $1.00, by Z. Wayne Griffin & Bro., and druggists generally. 15-3m-cow

Milk Cow Wanted.
I want to purchase a young, first-class milk cow now giving milk, one that gives rich milk, and lots of it, and has a young calf. Will pay a fair price in cash. 17-4f Jno. P. BARRETT.

McIntire's Prolific Corn.
This corn matures two weeks sooner than common corn, and will yield 100 bushels per acre on common up land. It is said to bring 24 bushels per acre on rich ground. It can be planted after the first of June, and gathered in time for sowing again. It yields from three to eight good ears of corn to each stalk. (Shown by sample). By only one planting raised enough from a gilt of corn to plant 20 acres. I paid at the rates of $22.00 per bushel, and now offer it for sale at 25 cents per quart, or five quarts for $1.00.
